The child support obligee shall obtain health care coverage (private health insurance coverage or public health care plan) for the child(ren) not later than thirty (30) days after it becomes available at a reasonable cost, and shall inform the _____ County Child Support Enforcement Agency (CSEA) when health care coverage for the child(ren) has been obtained.

If private health insurance coverage becomes available to the child support obligor at a reasonable cost, the child support obligor shall inform the _____ County Child Support Enforcement Agency (CSEA) and may seek a modification of health care coverage from the Court with respect to a Court child support order, or from the agency with respect to an administrative support order.

- The child support obligee is a non-parent individual or agency that has no duty to provide medical support.
- Both parents wish to provide and already have private health insurance coverage in place or have private health insurance coverage available for the child(ren).
