RULE 7 PARENTING/VISITATION TIME

Parenting/visitation time is meant for the non-residential parent and that person's friends and family. The best parenting/visitation schedule is your own plan. However, if you cannot agree, this Court Parenting/Visitation Plan is designed to ensure that your child(ren) will have frequent and consistent contact with both parties.

PLEASE NOTE: The Holiday/Days of Special Meaning Schedule shall take precedence over the normal weekly parenting schedule and summer vacation schedule. The Extended Parenting Time /Vacation Schedule shall take precedence over the normal weekly parenting schedule. Unless otherwise agreed or defined, the effective start date for court ordered parenting time begins after the Judge signs the Judgment Entry adopting the Magistrate's Decision.

(A) Weekend and Midweek Companionship

1. For children birth to age 18 months. Three weekly visits for 2-6 hours, on the days and times the parties can agree. If the parties cannot agree, then the days shall be every Saturday from 2:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. and every Tuesday and Thursday from 4:30 p.m. until 7:00 p.m., unless otherwise ordered by the Court.
2. For children age 18 months to three years. One or two weekly visits for 2-6 hours, plus one overnight, on the days and times the parties can agree. If the parties cannot agree, then the days shall be every Tuesday and Thursday from 4:30 p.m. until 7:00 p.m. and overnight from Friday at 5:30 p.m. until Saturday at 5:30 p.m., unless otherwise ordered by the Court.
3. For children age 3 years and older. Every other weekend from Friday after school (as soon as the non-residential parent can pick up the child) until Sunday at 6:00 p.m. plus one evening a week, as the parties can agree. If the parties cannot agree, the midweek will be Wednesday from 4:30 p.m. until 8:00 p.m. and weekends from 6:00 p.m. Friday until Sunday at 6:00 p.m., unless otherwise ordered by the Court.

(B) Extended Parenting Time / Vacation

1. For children ages birth to 3 years, the parties shall follow the normal weekly parenting time schedule unless extended parenting time or vacation time is otherwise agreed to by the parties.
2. For children ages 3 years to 5 years, each parent may have up to 10 days in town or out of town each year or two one-week periods separated by at least three weeks. At least 60 days before the planned vacation, each parent must give the other parent written notice of the travel dates. At least 7 days before travel, each parent must give detailed information to the other parent, including the places they will be going, times of arrival and departure, method of travel, and how to reach the child or the parent during the vacation. Children may go for extended parenting time throughout the year, provided the parents comply with the sixty (60) day notice requirement.
3. For children ages 5 and older, each year, each parent may take from two to four weeks of vacation time with the child during the child's summer break from school. "Summer break" is defined as beginning at 9:00 a.m. on the day after the last day the child attends school and ending at 8:00 p.m. on the day before school reconvenes.

Two (2) two-week periods may be best for younger children. If a four-week vacation period is used and the child is in town, the child shall have the opportunity to be with the non-vacationing parent for one weekend during the vacation period. At least 60 days before the planned vacation, each parent must give the other parent written notice of the travel dates. At least 7 days before travel, each parent must give detailed information to the other parent, including the places they will be going, times of arrival and departure, method of travel, and how to reach the child or the parent during the vacation.

4. Non-residential parent's schedule shall have priority in odd-numbered years over residential parent, unless residential parent's vacation time is mandated by provisions of his/her employment (such as annual plant shut-down). The parties shall give written notice to the other of the vacation schedule at least 60 days in advance.
