RULE 2 SECURITY FOR COSTS

As security for costs, an advance deposit must be made with the Juvenile Clerk before filing any legal action in the Court. The costs listed therein are, at all times, subject to change without specific amendment of these rules.

The deposit, as security for costs, shall be considered to be met if a party files a Financial Disclosure Form to proceed in forma pauperis, certifying that the party is without funds or assets to pay the deposit and there is certification by the attorney, if any, that no attorney fees have been paid.

After filing such Financial Disclosure Form, the court may examine the filing party as well as the party's Financial Disclosure Form to determine if there are sufficient facts to support a conclusion the party should be relieved from the requirement of such deposit, and may conduct a hearing to examine the filing party.

The Clerk shall not assign a case number to a complaint or petition in any original action unless the required cost deposit has been made or the Court has issued an order waiving the requirement for the deposit.

If during the course of a proceeding the Court determines that a party who has filed a Financial Disclosure Form is able to pay the applicable costs deposit, the Court may order that party to pay the deposit within a period of time determined by the court.

All judgment entries shall contain a provision for allocating payment of costs. The Clerk shall not accept for filing any decree or post decree entry or order without the payment of costs due, unless waived or otherwise modified by the court.

Upon final judgment, the Clerk is directed to apply the deposits for court costs in the case regardless of which party had been assessed costs. The Clerk shall assess the costs against the proper party and reimburse deposits upon receipt, when appropriate.

Should any final Judgment Entry not allocate the payment of court costs, the initiating party shall be responsible for said costs.

(C) Confidentiality

1. General. All mediation communications related to or made during the mediation process are subject to and governed by the Uniform Mediation Act. Mediation communications are confidential, and no one shall disclose any of these communications unless all parties and the mediator consent to disclosure. This court may impose penalties for any improper disclosures made in violation of this rule. Disputes regarding confidentiality should first be addressed with the mediator or mediation department where possible.

By participating in mediation, a nonparty participant, as defined by R.C. 2710.01(D), submits to the Court's jurisdiction to the extent necessary for enforcement of this rule. Any nonparty participant shall have the rights and duties under this rule as are attributed to parties, except that no evidence privilege shall be expanded.

A mediator shall meet the qualifications of and comply with all training requirements of Sup.R. 16.23 and adopted pursuant to Sup.R.16.22 governing mediators and mediation.

(I) Mediator Selection and Assignment

The following methods may be used to determine the mediator for the case:

1. The court may assign a court mediator to mediate
2. The court may randomly assign a mediator to the case from the court's roster of approved mediators
3. Specific appointments may be made by the court taking into consideration the qualifications, skills, expertise, and caseload of the mediator in addition to the type, complexity and requirements of the case
4. Parties may select a mediator from the court roster, if any
5. Parties may request leave to select a mediator without guidance from the court. The court shall not be responsible for the quality of a mediator selected by the parties without guidance from the court and who does not meet the qualifications, education and training requirements set forth in section (5) above.

(J) Procedures

In accordance with all applicable provisions of this rule, if a case is deemed appropriate by the court for mediation, mediation may be scheduled.

Mediation may occur in person or virtually.

A mediator may meet with the parties individually prior to bringing the parties together for any reason including, but not limited to, further screening. A mediator may schedule multiple mediation sessions, if necessary and mutually acceptable for the resolution of the issues in part or in their entirety.

A party opposed to either the referral or the appointed mediator must file a written objection with the court within seven days of receiving notice of the referral or provider and explain the reasons for any opposition.

(K) Party/Nonparty Participation

Parties to informal cases such as pre-filing or diversion may voluntarily attend mediation sessions.

Parties who are ordered into mediation in formal cases shall attend scheduled mediation sessions. The court may order parties to return to mediation at any time in formal cases.

If counsel of any party to the mediation becomes aware of the identity of a person or entity whose consent is required to resolve the dispute, but has not yet been joined as a party in the pleadings, they shall promptly inform the mediator as well as the assigned judge or magistrate.

If the opposing parties to any case are 1) related by blood, adoption, or marriage; 2) have resided in a common residence, or 3) have known or alleged domestic violence at any time prior to or during the mediation, then the parties and their counsel have a duty to disclose such information to the mediator and have duty to participate in any screening required by the court.

By participating in mediation, a nonparty participant, as defined by R.C. 2710.01(D), agrees to be bound by this rule and submits to the court's jurisdiction to the extent necessary for enforcement of this rule. Except as authorized by the court, the existence of pending motions shall not be good cause for a continuance and no continuance will be granted unless the mediation can be scheduled prior to the final pretrial. If a continuance of a scheduled mediation is requested and the proposed new date is within 60 days of the initial referral to mediation, then the request shall be made to the mediator. If the requested date is more than 60 days after the referral to mediation, then the request must be made to the judge or magistrate assigned to the case.

PLEASE NOTE: The Holiday/Days of Special Meaning Schedule shall take precedence over the normal weekly parenting schedule and summer vacation schedule. At least 7 days before travel, each parent must give detailed information to the other parent, including the places they will be going, times of arrival and departure, method of travel, and how to reach the child or the parent during the vacation. If both parents are mothers, then Parent 1 will have the child on Mother's Day in odd-numbered years and Parent 2 will have the child on Mother's Day in even-numbered years. If both parents are fathers, then Parent 1 will have the child on Father's Day in odd-numbered years and Parent 2 will have the child on Father's Day in even-numbered years.

If a parent is available to spend time with the child(ren) on other scheduled school closings, parenting time shall occur, taking into consideration the work schedule of the other parent as well as the usual child care arrangements. If both parents are available, such days shall alternate between the parties.

(D) Make-Up Days

Make-up days shall be given if, due to an emergency, the child or non-residential parent cannot visit at the scheduled time. All make-up days shall be rescheduled and exercised within 30 days.

Rule 7.1 Extracurricular Activities

Regardless of where the children are living, their participation in existing and renewed extracurricular activities, school related or otherwise, shall continue uninterrupted. Each party shall ensure the children's attendance at their activities during their respective parenting time. The party with the child at the time of the activity shall provide for the transportation to these activities. Notice of all extracurricular activities, school related, or otherwise, in which the children participate, schedules of all extracurricular activities (handwritten, if no formal schedule is provided by the activity) and the name of the activity leader (including address and telephone number if reasonably available) shall be exchanged between the parties.

Rule 7.2 Change of Residence

(A) If the residential parent intends to move to a residence other than the residence specified in the parenting time order or decree of the court, the parent shall file a Notice of Intent to relocate with the court that issued the order or decree. Either parent must file a Notice of Intent to Relocate thirty (30) days in advance if he or she intends to move to a residence other than the residence specified in the court Order. (See Appendix Page 74). This notice must be filed with the Court that issued the Order and shall include the following: a) the case number under which the original parenting time or visitation order was issued; b) the residential parent's name, old address, and new address; and c) the non-residential parent's name and present address. The moving party and the Court shall send a copy of this notice to the other parent, UNLESS the parent has:

1. previously been convicted or plead guilty to a violation of Ohio Revised Code 2919.25 involving a victim who, at the time of the offense, was a member of the family or household that is the subject of the current proceeding;
2. been convicted of an offense involving a victim who, at the time of the offense, was a member of the family or household that is the subject of the current proceeding and caused physical harm to the victim in the commission of the offense; or
3. acted in a manner resulting in an adjudication that a child has been abused or neglected child.

Upon receipt of this notice, the Court, on its own Motion or the Motion of the non-residential parent, may schedule a hearing with notice to both parents to determine whether it is in the best interest of the child to revise the parenting time schedule.

(B) Long Distance: If a parent intends to relocate his or her residence and the relocation will increase the distance from the other parent's home by more than thirty (30) miles, the relocating parent shall first obtain a modified parenting time order that accommodates the increased distance and travel time.

Rule 7.3 Access to Records, Day Care and Activities. Each party is entitled, under the same terms and conditions under which access is provided to the residential parent, to access:

- (1) any school, health, or agency records or reports that are related to the child(ren);
- (2) any child day care center which the child attends; and
- (3) Any student activity in which the child(ren) participated. O.R.C. 3109.051(H), (I), (J).
- (4) each party shall provide the name and contact information of all providers to the other party.

(A) Records Access: Subject to Sections 3125.16 and 3319.321(F) Ohio Revised Code, the non-residential parent is entitled to access any record related to the child under the same terms and conditions that access is provided to the residential parent.

NOTICE TO KEEPER OF RECORDS: Any keeper of a record who knowingly fails to comply with this order or with Section 3109.051 (H) Ohio Revised Code is in Contempt of Court.

(B) Day Care Center Access: The non-residential parent shall have access, in accordance with Section 5104.011 Ohio Revised Code, to any child day care center attended by the child under the same terms and conditions that access is provided to the residential parent.

(C) School Activity Access: Subject to Section 3319.321(F) Ohio Revised Code, the non-residential parent shall have access to any student activity involving the child under the same terms and conditions that access is provided to the residential parent.

NOTICE TO SCHOOL OFFICIALS AND EMPLOYEES: Any school official or employee who knowingly fails to comply with this order or with Section 3109.051(J) Ohio Revised Code is in Contempt of Court.

Rule 7.4 Transportation

The party initiating parenting time shall be responsible for transportation unless otherwise agreed. The child(ren) and the residential parent have no duty to wait for the non-residential parent to arrive for more than 30 minutes. The non-residential parent who is more than 30 minutes late for a particular companionship period shall forfeit that visitation with no right to make-up parenting time.

If a party is unavailable to pick up the child(ren), an adult, licensed driver who is well-known to the child(ren) may provide transportation. All child restraint laws shall be followed by any individual transporting the child(ren). No person transporting the child(ren) may be under the influence of drugs or alcohol.

Rule 7.5 Telephone Calls

Each party shall communicate by telephone or other electronic means with the child(ren) as often as the parties agree. If the parties cannot agree, the non-residential parent shall have telephone or electronic communication privileges at least twice per week. In addition, a party may communicate with a child once during a scheduled or agreed visitation period that is missed. Also, each party shall have the right to communicate with the child who is on vacation with the other party as often as the parties agree; absent agreement, each party may communicate with the child at least twice per week. Phone calls or other electronic communication shall occur during the normal hours a child is awake, and if the child is unavailable for conversation, each party shall be responsible to see that the child timely returns the call or electronic communication.

Rule 7.6 Medication/Illness

If the child(ren) is taking medication (prescription or non-prescription) upon the advice of a physician, the residential parent shall send with the child(ren) sufficient medication to last the entire visitation period; written instructions for the administration of the medication to the child(ren); and the name and telephone number of the physician. If visitation time is cancelled due to the child(ren)'s illness or injury, then the time shall be made up within sixty (60) days at a time of the non-residential parent's choosing.

Rule 7.7 Long Distance Parenting Plan

(Under Construction)

RULE 6.4 Ex-parte/Temporary “Emergency” Orders

(A) No Ex-Parte/Temporary “Emergency” Orders for the allocation of parental rights and responsibilities or parenting time shall be issued except in extreme emergency situations. The party requesting such orders shall make every good faith effort to provide opposing counsel and unrepresented parties with notice of the application to the Court for such relief.

No case can be opened or re-opened with only a request for an ex-parte/temporary “emergency” order. A Complaint or a Motion requesting final orders must accompany the motion for ex-parte/temporary “emergency” orders.

The Court will consider post-decree motions for ex-parte/temporary “emergency” orders that modify custody or visitation only in situations of extreme emergency. All such motions shall be supported by affidavit(s) that set forth such facts as would be admissible as evidence and that contain sufficient facts to support the claim for relief and establish that an extreme emergency exists. The filing party must be present at the courthouse when the motion, affidavits, and proposed ex-parte/temporary “emergency” order are presented for consideration. The Court, in its discretion, may conduct an ex-parte/temporary “emergency” hearing with the filing party.

The Court considers the following to constitute situations of Extreme Emergency:

1. Attempting to cause, or recklessly causing, bodily injury to the child;
2. Committing any act with respect to the child that would result in the child being an abused child (Rev. Code 2151.031) or a neglected child (Rev. Code 2151.03);
3. Engaging in conduct which causes, or is likely to cause, significant emotional and/or mental stress to the child;
4. Engaging in conduct which creates, or is likely to create, an environment which significantly endangers the child’s physical health, or mental, moral, or emotional development.
5. The residential parent is unavailable due to extended hospitalization, incarceration, or other emergency.
6. The residential parent has abandoned the child.

Third party corroboration of irreparable harm or extreme emergency is required. Such information would include, but is not limited to, statements from law enforcement or a children services agency.

Counsel requesting extraordinary relief shall produce the party seeking the relief to state on the record, under oath, why the relief is sought and why immediate relief is necessary. The moving party shall be subject to examination by the Court.

Hearings under this section may be conducted in camera, however the statement of the movant shall be on the record.

The Court may not consider a proposed ex-parte/temporary “emergency” order that modifies custody and/or visitation unless all of the following points are addressed in the affidavit(s) in support of the proposed order:

1. Whether the other party was provided prior notice of the filing party’s intent to request an ex-parte/temporary “emergency” order, and if prior notice was not provided, the reason(s) for not providing notice. If the filing party knows, or has reason to believe, that the opposing party is represented by counsel, or has been represented by counsel within thirty (30) days immediately preceding the filing of the post-decree motion, then notice of the filing party’s intent to seek an ex-parte/temporary “emergency” order shall be provided to that attorney in writing; and
2. If the filing party does not believe parenting time would be appropriate, or that an order of supervised parenting time would be appropriate, then the affidavit shall include sufficient facts to support a no-parenting time, or supervised parenting time order. (The Court will not consider a proposed ex-parte/temporary “emergency” order that does not address the issue of parenting time, child support, and health care insurance), and
3. If the children are school age, and if the filing party resides in a school district other than the opposing party’s school district, then the affidavit shall recite that fact. If the filing party is unable to maintain the current school placement for the children, he/she shall explain the reason(s) why in the affidavit; and
4. Any party obtaining an ex-parte/temporary “emergency” order of temporary custody shall obtain possession of the child(ren) in the least confrontational manner possible and shall minimize any stress to the child(ren).

A party may submit to the Court a motion, affidavits in support and proposed order requesting ex-parte relief, in the absence of situations of extreme emergency with respect to children where:

1. A child is about to suffer irreparable harm, including but not limited to, physical abuse, bodily injury, or domestic violence in the other party’s household;
2. A residential parent is unavailable due to extended hospitalization or other emergency;

3. A residential parent is about to move out of the jurisdiction of this Court.

Where ex-parte relief is granted, and at the discretion of the Court, a de novo or review hearing shall be scheduled before either the Judge or Magistrate of record. The ex-parte/temporary “emergency” order shall remain in full force and effect until that hearing. Hearings both for Probable Cause to grant requests for ex-parte orders and for review of ex-parte orders shall take preference on the docket as to scheduling. All hearings with respect to probable cause to grant and review of ex-parte orders shall be recorded. The record of the hearing on the ex-parte order shall be provided upon request and the posting of reasonable costs therefore, and the Court shall expedite the production of such record when requested for purposes of the filing of responsive pleadings or preparation for de novo hearing.

(B) The Court may issue temporary orders which restrict the removal of a child from the jurisdiction of the Court upon the filing of an Ex-parte Motion.

(C) If a party wishes to contest an Ex-parte/Temporary Emergency Order granting temporary residential parent status, the party shall file a motion for relief or motion to set aside, as appropriate. Copies of the motion shall be served in accordance with the Rules of Practice and Procedures for Ohio’s Courts and Local Rule 4. Upon filing, the Court shall schedule the matter for hearing.

(D) If, after an immediate hearing has been conducted on an ex-parte order, the Court determines that the filing party’s statements were untrue or inaccurate so as to mislead the Court, that party shall be subject to sanctions, including but not limited to, a dismissal of their action, and/or an award of attorney fees and expenses to the opposing party, and/or a contempt citation.
