

Coshocton Foundation awards 14 grants to various community organizations

Staff Reports

Coshocton Tribune

COSHOCOTON – The Coshocton Foundation has awarded 14 grants totaling $62,493 to various community organizations for the second round of distribution for 2024.

The distribution committee reviewed 30 grant applications totaling $507,238. Three applications were referred back for more information and are eligible for re-submission in the future.

Awarded grants were:

- $12,878 to the Coshocton County Coordinated Transportation Agency to assist in the equipping of revenue service vehicles with cameras and wraps
- $10,000 to Coshocton City Schools to provide support for the construction of an outdoor classroom in memory of award-winning educator Leslie Croft
- $10,000 to Kids America to provide assistance for their replacement and upgrading of security cameras
- $5,500 to the Coshocton County District Library to provides assistance with the purchase and replacement of wooden frames and poles with aluminum ones.
- $5,000 to the Friends of the Coshocton County Drug Court to provide assistance with family dependency treatment services
- $4,000 to the Village of West Lafayette to provide assistance with the purchase of lighted stop signs for pedestrian safety.
- $3,000 to the River View Athletic Boosters to provide assistance with the purchase of new wrestling mats
- $2,115 to the Pregnancy Center of Coshocton to provide programming support and baby supplies
- $2,000 to First Step Family Violence Intervention Services to provide assistance with their substance abuse educational programming in Coshocton County Schools
- $2,000 to Junior Achievement of Central Ohio to provide assistance in expanding work-readiness programs in Coshocton County Schools
- $2,000 to Women of Witness to assist the Chestnut Learning Center with programming costs and supplies
- $1,500 to Coshocton Resource Center to provide for summer youth programming & supplies
- $1,500 to Three Rivers Recreation to support to purchase of two pitching screens for increased player safety
- $1,000 to Slater Family Farm Outreach to assist with therapeutic adult outreach supplies