Investment Portfolio

Mrs. Barbara Karr presented the Quarterly Investment Report for the Coshocton County Treasurer. She stated that we are still on schedule to meet the estimated revenue for investment income in 2010. The Commissioners thanked her for attending.

Mr. Todd Drown

Mr. Todd Drown attended the meeting to discuss with the Commissioners his run for Common Pleas Court Judge. He stated that if he is successful in his attempt, he would like the Commissioners know that he is aware of the County budget constraints and he stated that he will not court order his budget and will work with the Commissioners to bring the court up to date and on-line. He also wanted to bring to the Commissioners attention that the courthouse building will also need to be addressed at some point as it clearly is in need of repair. The Commissioners thanked Mr. Drown for attending.

Discussion – TR 364

Ms. Anne Bowen attended the meeting and requested to see if the Commissioners can do anything about the neighbor that is creating a problem on 364. Mr. Lee asked if this was a township road and Ms. Bowen stated that it is a township road. Mr. Fischer asked if the neighbor is requesting the trustees to work on the road. Ms. Bowen stated that he is asking the trustees to work on the road. Mr. Fischer asked if she has discussed this issue with the trustees. She stated that she has spoken with one trustee and the other two will not talk to her. Ms. Bowen asked that the trustees not grade the road. She doesn't want debris and it will just make a mess. Mr. Lee stated that this is an issue that she needs to work out with the trustees.
