Mr. Jeff Wherley attended the meeting to give an update on the Litter fund. He looked at couple of trailers from the Licking County litter district to have additional trailers for when they have short weeks to use in areas that would need additional trailers. He would also like to purchase a new truck if funds were available through the CFLP Solid Waste District. He will get a quote from State Term pricing for a new truck.

Ms. Deb Bigelow and Mr. David Lapp from the Soil and Water District attended the meeting to inform the Commissioners of a new program that they are developing called Adult Ag Awareness Event. They would like to have their First Farm Friday in conjunction with the First Friday's Event on June 3, 2011 and then they will have their second event on September 2, 2011.
