Discussion – Courthouse

Judge Robert Batchelor stopped in the meeting to discuss painting the interior of the courthouse. Judge Batchelor stated that they have been doing some projects at the courthouse and are trying to retain the historic integrity at the courthouse. They are now looking at painting the courtroom. This is a monumental job. He has a quote from Quality Painting in the amount of $9,500. He is questioning if he will need to get additional quotes. Mr. Shryock stated that he is familiar with this particular contractors work and although his work is very good it is a bit expensive. Mr. Lee stated that he is alright with not getting any additional quotes and going with this local contractor. Mr. Fischer stated that he has used this contractor in the past and he is quite competent at the historical work. He feels the historical significance is important here. The Commissioners thanked him for coming over and keeping us updated on the progress over there.

Adjourn

At 12:00 p.m. Mr. Shryock adjourned the meeting.
