COMMISSIONER'S JOURNAL

Monday

Regular

March 21, 2016

Discussion – Mrs. Melinda Fehrman

Mrs. Fehrman, DJFS Director updated the Commissioners on the status of approximately half of the West Rock Employees that were displaced and what these employees are doing for employment at this time. She then stated that through the Family and Children First Council there is grant funding available through the Buckeye Council. She stated that at first they did not feel they would apply for grant funding, but at this time they have reconsidered and feel that they could benefit from this grant funding. There was then discussion about the fiscal administration of the Family and Children First Council. At this time the Coshocton County Health District Board is the Fiscal Agent. That being all, the Commissioners thanked her for her update.

Litter Report

Received the 1st Quarter 2016 Litter Collection Report from Mr. Mike Carroll, Coshocton County Litter and Recycling Prevention.

Adjourn

At 10:30 a.m. Mr. Lee adjourned the meeting.
