2017 City CDBG Projects

Mr. Jerry Stenner, Mayor Steve Mercer, City of Coshocton, Mrs. Robin Schonauer and Mr. Bob Fetters, City Councilman attended the meeting to discuss some 2017 CDBG Projects that the City of Coshocton would like to consider. Mr. Jerry Stenner stated that this year the City would like to ask the Commissioners submit a Neighborhood Revitalization Grant Application for the North end of the City. He reviewed several of the ideas they have for this grant. He then reviewed some of the ways they plan to use match monies/work for this grant. He stated that they have never put in for this type of grant but feel good about our ability to get this grant. He also stated that they will re-submit a grant request as well that was not funded last year which was a Critical Infrastructure Grant. Mayor Mercer stated that he feels this will be a very beneficial grant for the City and many of the residents will benefit from it. He also stated that the Critical Infrastructure that was not funded last year will be a good request for this year. Mayor Mercer then stated that last year Mr. David Baker submitted a project for Roscoe Village and he does not feel he will re-submit that to the Commissioners again this year as he feels he has found a different avenue for that project. Mr. Fischer stated that the Commissioners feel these projects will be very beneficial and have no issue supporting their request. The Commissioners thanked them for attending.

Soil & Water – Swearing In Ceremony

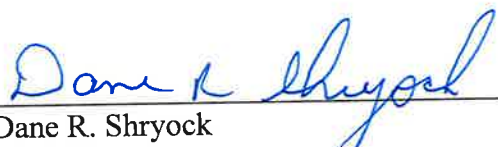

Ms. Deb Bigelow, Mr. Greg Waters and Ms. Kristy Leindecker attended the meeting for the swearing in of Mr. Waters and Ms. Leindecker. Mr. Fischer preformed the ceremony.
