COMMISSIONER'S JOURNAL

Monday

Regular

October 15, 2018

Mr. Fischer stated that beginning in June the Commissioners were doing research on the issue and letters have been written to our Representatives, Senators, Ohio EPA and ODNR regarding citizens' concerns. The Commissioners also had an article in the Beacon that had all of the letters that they had written. Roberta Kettler asked if the Commissioners planned to attend the hearing to voice their position during the public comment period. Mr. Shryock stated that the Commissioners had conversation last week regarding writing a letter on their position and it was their understanding that a letter held the same merit as speaking at the hearing. They understood that they would have until October 26, 2018 to submit the letter.

Bid Opening

At 10:00 a.m. bids for the EMS Central Office Renovation were opened with the following persons present: Mr. Todd Shroyer, EMS Director, Jody Copp, Beaver Construction, William Albert and Don Wells, Albert Excavation. The only bid received was from Beaver Construction with a bid of $1,100,000.00. Mr. Shryock asked for the Engineer estimates, Mr. Shroyer stated it was $518,700. Mr. Shryock stated that the Beaver Construction bid would be rejected since it was over 10%. Mr. Shryock asked Mr. Shroyer to go back to the architect and re-evaluate the project and then get back with them for further instruction.

Request to Close office

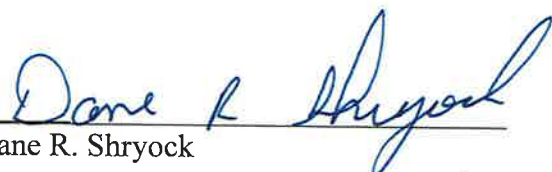

Mr. Nick Carey attended the meeting to ask permission to have their phones answered by voicemail the entire week of 10/22/18 for training on their new system. Mr. Carey stated if a client needs transportation they can leave a detailed message and the Office Staff will enter all request at the end of the day. The Commissioners gave him permission to start advertising that they would not be answering the phones during the week of October 22, 2018.

Meetings Attended

Mr. Lee attend the Family Children First Council Executive Committee meeting on October 11, 2018 and Mr. Lee and Mr. Fischer attended the Junior Fair Buyers breakfast on October 13, 2018.

Adjourn

At 12:00 p.m. Mr. Shryock adjourned the meeting.
