2020 Common Pleas Annual Report

Judge Robert Batchelor attended the meeting to present his 2020 Annual Common Pleas Court Report. He stated that the Commissioners have never received this report from the court in the past. He stated that he has thought this would be something good to do. With the new court system in place, he felt it would be good information to share with the Commissioners. He then reviewed his report. He discussed the challenges they had with Covid -19 and also stated that at this time the court doors are locked, but the court is still open. However, they are doing things a little differently now. They will continue this process into the near future until things would change. He then reviewed the newly established Probation Department and that departments statistics. He also reviewed the Drug Treatment Program as well. He also reviewed the numbers for Civil Cases, Criminal Cases and Domestic Relations Cases. The Commissioners thanked him for his report.
