Mr. Joshua Kempf, 2025 Snow Patrol Policy

At 10:30 a.m. Mr. Joshua Kempf presented the Commissioner with the 2025 Snow Patrol Policy for the Coshocton County Engineers Office. Mr. Kempf, Deputy Engineer stated only a couple changes from previous years were made. County Road 1 is now off of the propriety list, since Keene school is no longer open. The Engineers office has new employees/drivers; however, the seasoned drivers will be running the routes with the new guys to filter in as well when needed. County Roads 16 and 9 will have straight salt and all other roads will have a salt and sand mixture. Additionally, salt prices have dropped some over the last couple of year. Mr. Shryock thanked Mr. Kempf for his presentation.

Report of Meetings Attended

On Thursday, November 14th Mr. Shryock attended the Justice Center meeting. On Thursday evening Mr. Shryock, Mr. Fischer and Mr. Conkle attended the River Boys Soccer Celebration to present the team with a Commendation.
