There are funds set aside for riprap, but the State capital funds received through Brenner have not yet been utilized for this purpose as to date and must be spent by the end of the year. Approximately $90,000 remains available for projects that need to be completed before the end of the year, including potential improvements at Skip's Landing or downtown revitalization projects.

COMMISSIONER'S JOURNAL

Wednesday

Regular

September 30, 2026

Mary Beck, County Administrator/Project Manager Updates, Continued

The possibility of installing cameras across the road from Skip's Landing on the Skelley side was discussed. An estimate of approximately $5,571, plus electrical costs, is being considered. The group also discussed lighting improvements downtown, including the possibility of installing string lights across the blocks. The County may partner with Clow on the project to be complete on Fourth and Fifth Streets. Dave Wagner suggested installing the string lights in place of the existing lights, and using arms for the lights. An estimate for the lighting improvements is not yet available. Josh Kempf, County Engineer suggested a dog park at the far end of Skip's Landing, past the trailers.

Meetings Attended

Commissioner Bigrigg attended the Land Use Plan meeting on Monday evening, September 28th. Both Commissioner Bigrigg and Commissioner Shryock attended the Grid Growth meeting on Tuesday evening, September 29th.

Mr. Josh Kempf, Coshocton County Engineer Discussion

Mr. Josh Kempf, Coshocton County Engineer, met with the Commissioners to discuss road assignments and dedications in the area of the Conesville Industrial Park. The Commissioners expressed that they are uncertain about all the current developments and activities taking place in the area and would like to obtain additional information before proceeding. The Commissioners agreed to hold off on any decisions regarding the road assignments and dedications until further information is available.

Adjourn

Mr. Bigrigg adjourned the meeting at 12:00 p.m.
